News and Information

- Rockville Swim and Fitness Center (RSFC) Renovation and New Pools
Michael Capotosto, Facilities Supervisor of the Swim and Fitness Center, updated the group about the progress of the RSFC renovation that will open this summer. Michael explained and showed visuals of the swim center's new features, including two new pools, a slide tower replacing the current slide into the pool, additional amenities like a water walk and zip line, and various recreational features. There will also be new shade areas, public pavilions, and custom artwork built for the main entrance, and safety features for the new amenities. The project aims to enhance the pool’s recreational space and flexibility. Michael answered many questions from the group.

Business Items

- Treasurer’s Report
Treasurer Darlene Pierro gave the report. WECA had a beginning balance in January of $2,823, no income during the month, and expenses of $108, leaving a balance at the end of January of $2,750.
- Public Safety Report
Margaret mentioned that Lt. Matney was unable to attend tonight’s meeting but would provide an update next month.
- Minutes Approval
A motion was made and seconded to approve the October and November meeting minutes, with no additions or corrections.
- Upcoming Events
VP of Outreach Heid Liu provided an update on upcoming events, including plans for the annual SpringFest on May 17, 2025. Heidi also noted the West End Women’s Group Happy Hour on February 28th at Finnegan’s Wake.

Open Forum

The floor was opened for community concerns and questions.

- There was discussion about a reported uptick in burglaries and a request for more information from Lieutenant Matney.
- Margaret encouraged residents concerned about deer overpopulation to testify to the Mayor and Council at the upcoming Budget Public Hearings in support of WECA's proposal to include funds for citywide Humane Deer Population Management in the FY26 budget.

Next Meeting

The next monthly neighborhood meeting will be on March 13, 2025.

Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 8 pm.
